

COMPANY OVERVIEW

CommandTec Commercial is headquartered in Huntsville, Alabama, also known as the Rocket City. It is a trusted provider of quality management system certification support and maturity model appraisal services. We help organizations strengthen operational excellence, improve process maturity, and meet regulatory and customer requirements across commercial and government sectors.

At CommandTec, we pride ourselves on our small business agility and a culture of extreme accountability. Combined, these two qualities provide our clients with solutions that increase efficiencies, minimize cost, and decrease mission risks, as demonstrated in our support of 260+ commercial clients that we guide and support in obtaining ISO and CMMI process improvement certifications standards and models, enabling clients to achieve compliance, reduce risk, and drive continuous improvement.
